HOC SIGNO FORTUNA.

BALTIMORE, FRIDAY, July 18, 1823.

The Register was not published last week, in consequence of there having been no drawing of either Lottery during that time.

Yesterday's drawing of the GRAND STATE LOTTERY, as will be seen by the list on the opposite page, was highly favourable to the wheel, and consequently advantageous to the adventurer, nothing having been drawn higher than one prize of One Hundred Dollars; It was sold at COHEN'S OFFICE in a Whole Ticket, and it was owned by a distant adventurer.—The drawing will be continued on Thursday after next, the 31st instant. In the mean time, those holding small prizes should send them on for renewal. Only sixteen drawings remain to complete this splendid scheme.

The Monument Lottery

Will continue its drawing on Thursday next, the 24th inst. The great Capitals in this patriotic Scheme are still undrawn—state of the wheel will be found on the 4th page of this day's Register. Tickets yet remain at the low rate of Ten Dollars.

New Rates of Tickets.

The price of Tickets in the GRAND STATE LOTTERY was advanced to FIFTEEN DOLLARS on the 10th inst. agreeably to notice previously given. The present rate is still very low, compared to the immense magnitude of the Capital Prize of ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS, and the improved condition of the wheel, as it regards obtaining a Capital; four drawings having already taken place and no prize yet out above One Thousand Dollars. The following rates of Tickets and Shares also show the largest prospect of gain on the most successful investments:

- ☛ A Whole Ticket, which costs $15, may produce the magnificent independence of ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS!
- ☛ A Half Ticket, which costs $7.50, may produce FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS!
- ☛ A Quarter Ticket, which costs only $3.75, may produce TWENTY-FIVE THOUSAND FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS!
- ☛ An Eighth Ticket, which costs the very trifling sum of $1.87, may produce TWELVE THOUSAND TWO HUNDRED AND FIFTY DOLLARS!

Such are the prospects on investments in the Grand STATE LOTTERY of Maryland. All orders should be forwarded to COHEN'S OFFICE without delay. Direct, (post paid) as heretofore, to

J. I. COHEN, Jr.—BALTIMORE.

PROMPT PAYMENT.—The fortunate holder of No. 12552, which drew one of the 2,000 dollar prizes in the MONUMENT LOTTERY on the 5th drawing, has already been put in possession of the CASH at COHEN'S OFFICE, where the lucky ticket was purchased. The other 2,000 dollar prize was also sold at COHEN'S OFFICE, and is jointly owned by a gentleman of this city and a clerk in a mercantile establishment. They have not yet applied for the Cash, which is ready at COHEN'S OFFICE to be paid at any moment.

DARING ROBBERY OF THE MAIL.
On Tuesday morning, the 8th inst. between 1 and 2 o'clock in the morning, the great Eastern mail, on its way from Philadelphia to Baltimore, was attacked by three (or four) armed ruffians about 2 miles beyond the Gunpowder Falls, and 16 from Baltimore. At the spot where the robbery took place there was a high bank on each side of the road, and the robbers had placed a quantity of brush, rails, &c. across the way to intercept the passage of the stage. The driver and guard anticipating an attack prepared to give them a warm reception, and when they came to the obstruction they perceived two or three men approach from their concealment. The guard of the mail who was well armed, defended it bravely, and fired his blunderbuss at them, and afterwards on examination much blood was found on the spot. Two men then appeared at whom he fired two pistols in succession, but with little or no effect, and having no further means of attack or defence, was knocked down by a blow on the left side of his head with the butt of a pistol. The driver seeing the fate of the guard ran to the nearest house on the road to request assistance. The neighborhood was immediately alarmed, and a number of persons promptly repaired to the spot where the robbery was committed, and found the guard lying in the road in a distressing situation; his head and face were much cut, though the wounds are not considered dangerous. The mail for Baltimore was not opened. The bag containing the mail for Washington and all South of Baltimore, was cut open; but it is supposed that not much, if any thing was taken out of it.

Mr. Stokes, mail contractor, left this city immediately, with Mr. George Bartol, and having joined at the place where the robbery occurred, they went with a shirt which was found in the road to the Iron Forge on the Gunpowder—it was immediately identified by Mr. Tucker, the manager, as belonging to one of the Forgemmen, named Emmonheiser, and the party immediately proceeded to his house. He denied all knowledge of the robbery, and expressed great willingness to go with them. It being known that another of the forgemmen of the name of Moore, boarded with Emmonheiser, he was asked for. He was said to be sick, and unable to come out; but when the party showed a determination to enter the house, he came forward. They were both taken to the house of the manager—while Emmonheiser was undergoing an examination by a magistrate. Moore was sent out of the room. While Mr. Stokes was talking to Moore, he saw that his vest was buttoned up rather closely; on pulling aside a black silk handkerchief which appeared to be arranged with care to cover his breast, he saw the marks of blood on Moore's shirt; upon further examination, it was found that he was wounded badly in the breast, with six or seven buck shot. Finding himself thus detected, he immediately made a full confession of the fact of robbing the mail, in which he was assisted by Emmonheiser, (then under arrest) and another forgemman named Ward. The latter was immediately arrested, and on examination, was found to be severely shot in the hand, by the blunderbuss. Moore also confessed where the packages taken from the mail were hid—he went with Messrs. Stokes, Rouse and others, to a place where a bag belonging to the forge was found under the leaves, in which were contained about two bushels of packages. Those on the top were known to be quarterly accounts of Postmasters, on their way to the General Post Office; these packages appeared to be marked with blood.

The robbers were escorted to the jail the same evening by the First Baltimore Hussars, who promptly mustered and repaired to the spot where the robbery occurred—this troop deserve and will receive the thanks of every good citizen, for their conduct on this occasion.

The trial of the robbers will take place at the Circuit Court of the U. S. which will sit in this city in November next.

Very Important from Europe.

The new line packet ship New-York, Capt. Maxwell, arrived at New-York on Sunday last, bringing Liverpool papers to the 4th of June, and London to the evening of the 31st May.

FRANCE AND SPAIN.—The French army under the Duc d'Angouleme ENTERED MADRID on the 23d May. Accounts state that the most efficient of the Spanish chiefs are deserting the cause of the Constitution, and are adopting measures, which, in effect will be the same as embracing the part of the invaders. The papers contain three documents of great interest, but which our limits will not permit the insertion of. The first is a letter of the 11th of May, from the count de Montijo, to the count d'Abisbal, the Spanish general at Madrid, calling upon him to declare himself independent under the King shall be released, and asserting that "to put in practice the Constitution of 1812 is physically and morally impossible; the other is the answer of count d'Abisbal, dated the 15th, declaring "that the majority of the nation does not desire to continue the Constitution of 1812," and suggesting the adoption of the following measures, viz:—1st, To notify to the duke d'Angouleme that the Spanish nation, in concurrence with the King, would alter their Constitution.—2d, To bring back the King to Madrid.—3d, To convoke a new Cortes.—4th, That the King should nominate a new Ministry.—5th, That a general Amnesty should be published. The substance of the letter was placarded through Madrid on the 16th of May, and on the 17th the count d'Abisbal issued a proclamation, exhorting the inhabitants to receive the French army as Friends!

The Quotidienne, speaking of this news, adds, that the Southern province of La Mancha is in full insurrection against the Constitution; that Ferdinand is expected shortly at Madrid, and that Abisbal is believed to have acted in concert with the generals Morillo and Ballasteros. One thing is very evident, whether the war be brought to a close in consequence of this turn of affairs, as the London papers all predict, or not, there has been a lamentable want of something in the Spanish cabinet—they have certainly shown more energy in writing than fighting.

Domestic Intelligence.

Bank U. States.—The directors of the Bank of the U. States have declared a dividend of 2½ per cent. on the capital stock for the last 6 months.

Georgia Banks.—A paragraph in the Savannah Times of the 25th June, informs that the banks of that city are making arrangements to resume specie payments for their bills next fall.

Steam Navigation.—A Louisville paper of the 11th ult. notices the arrival there, within a few days, of four steam boats from New-Orleans, bringing no less than 780 passengers.

Hard Times!—The furniture of the British Minister, which has been sold at auction, in Washington, brought very high prices; in many instances more than the original cost. The cash receipt of the sale amounted to upwards of $8,000.

Henry and Eclipse.—In consequence of some doubts having been expressed of the age of the horse Henry, the late competitor of Eclipse, Col. Wm. R. Johnson, of Virginia, has forwarded a certificate of his age, which is published in the N. Y. Evening Post. He was four years old on the 17th of June last; of course he was under four years when he ran the match race with Eclipse.

Halves, Quarters and Eighths.

The demand for Share-Tickets in the GRAND STATE LOTTERY continues unprecedented.—They are issued at COHEN'S OFFICE, by authority of the ACT OF ASSEMBLY. The advantage to the adventurer in purchasing Shares, is in the increased number of chances obtained for the same amount of money which would otherwise be invested in a whole Ticket—and when we consider the great amount of the Capital Prize of ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS in the Grand State Lottery, we are not surprised at the demand for the Shares, as an HALF TICKET, which costs only seven dollars and fifty cents may produce FIFTY THOUSAND—A QUARTER Ticket, which costs only three dollars and seventy-five cents, may produce TWENTY-FIVE THOUSAND—and an EIGHTH Ticket, which costs but the trifling sum of one dollar eighty-seven and a half cents, may produce to the adventurer no less than TWELVE THOUSAND FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS!

Orders from any part of the United States, by mail (post paid) or by private conveyance, enclosing the cash, or prizes in any of the Baltimore Lotteries, will meet the same prompt and punctual attention, as if on personal application, addressed to

J. I. COHEN, Jr.—Baltimore.

CASH ON DEMAND

will be paid for all Prizes which may be sold at

COHEN'S OFFICE,

in either of the two Brilliant Schemes of the Grand State Lottery AND Monument Lottery.

The following are the rich capitals contained in the two schemes, both which are now drawing in the City of Baltimore:

- 1 Capital prize of $100,000
- 2 Capital prizes of 20,000
- 4 Capital prizes of 10,000
- 2 Capital prizes of 5,000
- 1 Capital prize of 2,000
- 25 Capital prizes of 1,000

&c. &c. the whole amounting to upwards of

360,000 Dollars.

The Official Lists of the Drawings of the GRAND STATE and MONUMENT LOTTERIES are both published in this paper, and will be forwarded, gratis, to all those who purchase their tickets at COHEN'S OFFICE.

The Notes of any of the Banks in Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina or Georgia, and also of all specie-paying Banks in Maryland, New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio, will be received at COHEN'S OFFICE, at par, in payment for either Tickets or Shares in the Grand State or Monument Lotteries.—The notes of the Bank of the United States and Branches will also be received par.
